SELECTION CRITERIA

1. Application to the Warren County Leadership Institute (WCLI) is open to persons living or working in Warren County.
2. Class members are selected by the WCLI Board on their own merits based upon the information provided in the application. The board selects a diverse group of men and women from a cross section of Warren County including business, labor, education, arts, religion, government, community-based organizations, and non-profits. The board encourages people from under-represented populations to apply.
3. Attendance at each class session is essential to the success of the class. Participants must attend all sessions. Prior permission must be obtained from the board president for excused absence from any session and may be granted only in cases of extreme personal emergency and unavoidable business conflicts. A participant will only be allowed 2 excused absences, if absolutely necessary. Failure to attend or to obtain prior permission for all class sessions may result in a participant not graduating from the program and forfeiture of tuition payments. In addition to the regular class sessions, participants are expected to participate in a class project.
